4. Area of Experience

Accounting Software Development for the Film productions Companies

Accounting Software written and complied in CLIPPER and user for the film production companies for about decade since 1987- 1998. Programmes written for about 20000 lines in FOX PRO and carried out the complete debugging. Also created as dos / windows 32 bit executable programme. I believe it was well suited for our Indian Style of film productions companies and the outputs are more conventional accounting methods. The software also well suited for the other business after a small corrections and modifications, which also I have carried out.

Accounting Software Development for the Film productions Companies

Accounting Software written and complied in CLIPPER and user for the film production companies for about decade since 1987- 1998. Programmes written for about 20000 lines in FOX PRO and carried out the complete debugging. Also created as dos / windows 32 bit executable programme. I believe it was well suited for our Indian Style of film productions companies and the outputs are more conventional accounting methods. The software also well suited for the other business after a small corrections and modifications, which also I have carried out.
